Important Information

What is the difference between a beneficiary and a dependant and why we need you to complete both Section E as well as Section F?

→ Beneficiary

You may nominate, in writing, any natural person(s) to receive your death benefits. Such a beneficiary can include a dependant or any other person (even if they do not necessarily depend on you financially).

→ Dependant

The Pension Funds Act defines a dependant as:

- (a) a person in respect of whom the member is legally liable for maintenance;
- (b) a person in respect of whom the member is not legally liable for maintenance, if such person -
 - (i) was, in the opinion of the board, upon the death of the member in fact dependent on the member for maintenance;
 - (ii) is the spouse of the member;
 - (iii) is a child of the member, including a posthumous child, an adopted child and a child born out of wedlock.
- (c) a person in respect of whom the member would have become legally liable for maintenance, had the member not died.
